OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Imphal, the 26th April, 2023

No.DIH-30/1/2023-DP-DP: With reference to Para 11 of DP's Office Memorandum No.20/38/2017-DIH/DP dated 7th December, 2017, regarding Inter-Departmental Seniority of the applicants under Die-In-Harness Scheme, all Administrative Departments/Heads of Department/Heads of Office are hereby directed to follow the following guidelines/instructions with immediate effect:

1. Transfer of applicants from one department to another shall be kept on hold (or kept in abeyance), until Die-in-Harness portal being developed by NIC for implementing the Die-in-Harness scheme is operationalised, or until further orders, whichever is earlier.
2. Receiving Department to whom such applicants have been transferred till date, shall return the applicants to the parent department, if such transfer has led to disturbance in the seniority list of existing applicants under Die-in-Harness scheme under the said receiving Department.
3. Fixing seniority of the Applicants in case of same date of death – In such cases where two or more Government servants have expired on the same day, the seniority of the eligible applicants / claimants in connection with the said Government servants, for appointment under the scheme, if any, shall be fixed in the chronological order of the date of birth of the applicants / claimants (that is, the older applicant shall be placed at higher seniority with respect to the younger applicant), subject to the condition that the application(s) are submitted by the claimant within the time line indicated at para 8 of DP's Office Memorandum No.20/38/2017-DIH/DP dated 7th December, 2017.

PH. BHAVANANDA SHARMA,
Deputy Secretary to the Government of Manipur.
